

Arlington Episcopal Lenten Study 2009

"Soul School: A new look at basic faith questions"

3/3		Is there a God? St. Mary's, 2609 N Glebe Rd The Rev. Dr. Katherine Sonderegger, Professor of Theology, Virginia Theological Seminary
3/10		Who was Jesus? St. John's, 415 S Lexington St The Rev. Lloyd A. (Tony) Lewis, Jr., The Molly Laird Downs Professor of New Testament, Virginia Theological Seminary
3/17		How do we know what God wants us to do? St. George's, 915 N Oakland St The Rev. Margaret Guenther, St. Columba's, Washington, DC
3/24		How do I pray? St. Andrew's, Lorcum Ln and Military Rd Liz Ward, Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation program leader, spiritual director at VTS, and retreat/prayer group leader
3/31		What about the church? Trinity, 2217 Columbia Pike The Rt. Rev. Shannon Johnston, Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia
4/7		Is there life after death? St. Michael's, 1132 N Ivanhoe St The Rev. Dr. Ian Markham, Dean, Virginia Theological Seminary
4/11		The Great Vigil of Easter St. Peter's, 4250 N Glebe Rd, 7:30 PM

Each Tuesday-night Lenten series evening begins with a simple supper at the host church at 6:30 PM, continues with programs for adults beginning at 7:30 PM, and end with a short Compline service at 8:30 PM. Nursery care is provided. The series finale will be a joint celebration of The Great Vigil of Easter. We invite absolutely everyone to attend.